mmm . . . sexy legs!

What is in this thing!

One plus one is . . .

I've heard that one before!

Sorry but I didn't have any lunch.

We can't help it we were born this way!

I told you, don't take a picture!

Am I doing this wrong?

Blaaaah!!!

mm Sue, Look at that cutie!

Real cute!

yuk! This tastes slimy!

Anyone have a spoon?

wow! I've never seen anything like this before!

This is my brother Jake!

What I think of school.

haaa, That one's hilarious!

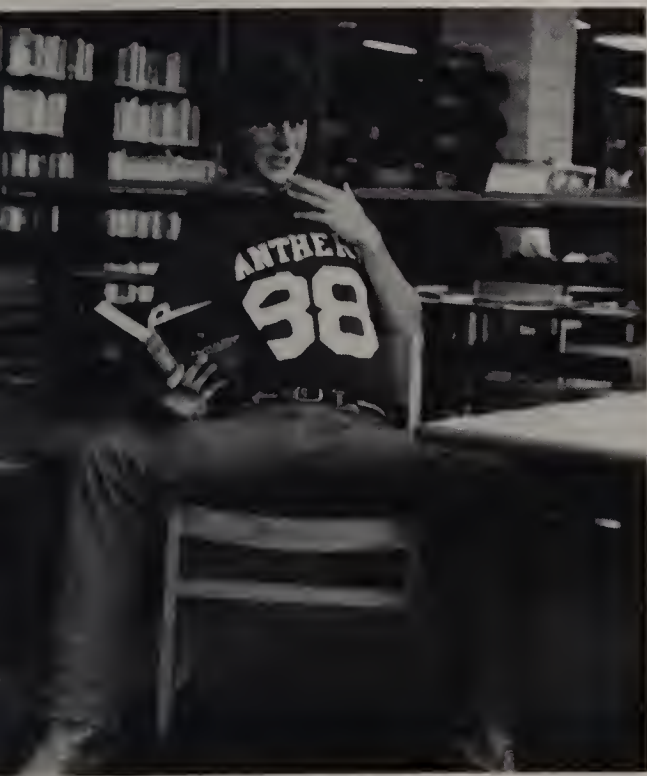

I'll have to think about that one!

REMEMBER WHEN . . .
 It was our first day of school as
 FRESHMEN
 Our first high school dance
 The first football rally
 We were afraid to take the mid-years for the first time
 The age became 20
 Senior week as FRESHMEN
 The seniors left
 At last - SOPHOMORES
 The woodshop caught fire
 Homecoming rally called off
 We won the Superbowl
 We got our class rings
 The seniors left
 At last we became JUNIORS - UPPER CLASSMEN
 We had a massive candy sale
 We lost the Superbowl
 We chose our prom theme
 We chose our class colors, and class motto
 The jr. prom
 The friendships made with the seniors, who would soon leave
 Senior week - the squirt gun fights with our senior friends
 The seniors left
 We finally became SENIORS
 We all ate breakfast together
 How expensive it was to eat at " Danny's Place "
 Our last, first football rally
 The homecoming activities
 The last, last rally
 We beat Hudson
 The semi-formal
 Making our Christmas wishes
 The teacher Telethon Variety Show
 We ordered our "T" -shirts
 The friendships made with each other
 Senior week-and the squirt gun fights with the underclassmen
 The last day of school
 The senior prom
 The parties after
 Class day-and the fun we had with each other
 Graduation practice
 GRADUATION - sitting there thinking of all the "Remember when's"
 REMEMBER WHEN?

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE AND HASTE, AND REMEMBER what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

SPEAK YOUR TRUTH QUIETLY AND CLEARLY; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit.

IF YOU COMPARE YOURSELF WITH OTHERS, YOU MAY become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

KEEP INTERESTED IN YOUR OWN CAREER, HOWEVER humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

BE YOURSELF. ESPECIALLY, DO NOT FEIGN affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

TAKE KINDLY THE COUNSEL OF THE YEARS, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a whole, a field of flowers; you are not a part, and the more you try to make yourself a part of the more you are so. No man is the hero of his own life; no man can live alone. The greatest among us have the deepest longings to be loved.

AND WHEN YOU DO NOT FEEL CLOSE TO THE WORLD, BE CLOSE TO THE WATERS, or to a garden, or to a school.

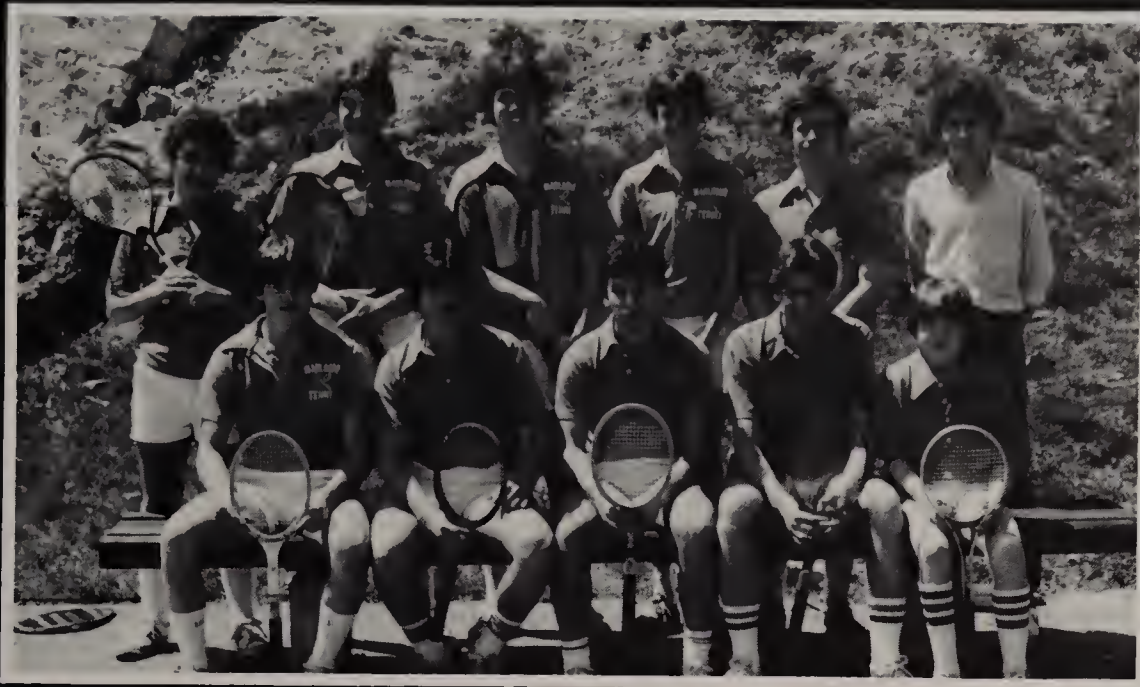

THAT YOU MAY LIVE IN PEACE WITH GOD, WHATEVER GOD conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and expectations, in the busy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all our pains and sadness and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

AND YOUR LIFE IS WORTHY OF GOD.

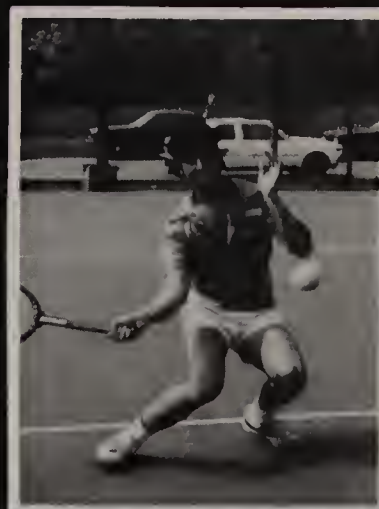

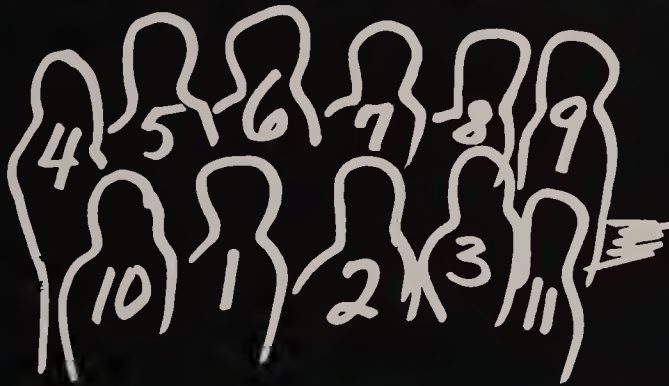

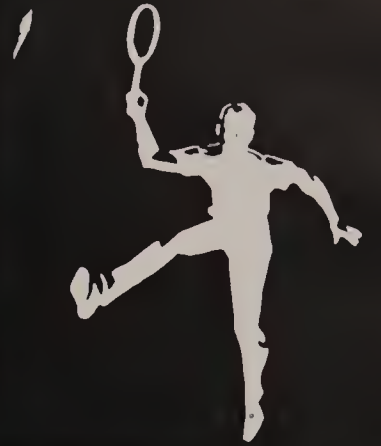

Special thanks to Dave Flynn, our principal; Joan Ledoux, school treasurer; John Neister, from Josten's Publishing Company; George Rosa from Yearbook Associates; Steve Forslund, our photographer from Yearbook Associates; Jeanette Neilsen, our advisor; and the people who sponsored this book!
